SECOND SUNDAY OF EASTER
SUNDAY OF DIVINE MERCY
April 28, 2019

Thoughts From Fr. Richard Fox ...

2nd Sunday of Easter or Sunday of Divine Mercy
Do not be afraid. (Revelation 1:17)

It happened just about every time God revealed himself. John had a vision of the risen Jesus, and it made him faint with terror (Revelation 1:17). Isaiah had a vision of the majesty of God, and he cried out, "Woe is me, I am doomed!" (Isaiah 6:5). Ezekiel saw God coming in the clouds, surrounded by rings of fire, and he fell on his face in awe (Ezekiel 1:28).

Even more "ordinary" revelations of God's holiness had a similar effect. Peter fell to his knees and cried out, "Depart from me, Lord, for I am a sinful man," after Jesus miraculously filled his nets with fish (Luke 5:8).

These may be dramatic scenes, but what happened next is even more dramatic. Jesus told John, "Do not be afraid," and then proceeded to give him messages for the churches (Revelation 1:17). Isaiah had his sins purged, and God called him to be a prophet (Isaiah 6:8). Seeing Ezekiel facedown on the ground, God told him to stand up; he just wanted to talk with him (Ezekiel 2:1). And Jesus told Peter, "Do not be afraid," and then called him to become a disciple (Luke 5:10).

Do you see the pattern? In each story, God made it clear that the person's past sins and mere mortality didn't pose obstacles to him. He was more focused on the work he had for them to do.

This is what divine mercy looked like in biblical times, and it's what it looks like today. It's God forgiving our every sin, cleansing our consciences, and easing our fears. It's also God looking with sadness on a darkened, sinful world and sending us out as his ambassadors.

Do not be afraid. Jesus says these words to you today. Don't be afraid of God. He loves you and he forgives you. And don't be afraid to share that mercy with the people around you. Forgive them just as you have been forgiven. Let them see in you the merciful face of God.

"Jesus, let the good news of your mercy fill the whole world today!"

"the WORD among us," April 2019

SOCIAL CONCERNS: During the month of May we are accepting donations for the Avera Pediatrics Prize Closet and Playroom. When children are ill it is hard for them to sit still for long periods of time. Avera Pediatrics has a great play room that is always in need of toys for the kids to play with. In addition when the children are able to go home they are able to choose a toy from the gift closet as a sort of prize for getting better. Please consider donating a new or gently used toy to Avera Pediatrics. Some children are in the hospital on their birthday so we are asking for birthday kits that will make their day a little more special. Suggested Donation Items: Tie blankets, new/gently used toys, birthday kits. Birthday kits can include party plates, napkins, cups, party favors, streamers, birthday sign and other decorations. For more information or questions Call Cathy Crisp 605 251-5119

ST. VINCENT DE PAUL: In the Gospel today, Jesus stands in the midst of us and says: "Peace be with you!" Indeed, the mercy of God centers our heart in peace. In the month of April, through your gifts, the Society of St. Vincent de Paul was able to help the poor celebrate the peace of Easter, by assisting 14 families, providing $400 in food, $425 in gifts, and $2,567.28 for utility and rent bills. Thank You!

LIFESAVERS TO SAVE LIVES: The Catholic Daughters will be distributing Life Savers after all the Masses next weekend, May 4th & 5th, to raise funds to combat domestic abuse. Free will donations will be given to abuse prevention and victim assistance organizations and shelters. Your support is greatly appreciated.

FIRST COMMUNION: Please pray for our second graders as they prepare to receive the Blessed Sacrament for the first time this weekend.

Respect Life!

Pope John Paul II declared the Sunday after Easter to be Divine Mercy Sunday. Many of the faithful pray the Chaplet of Divine Mercy regularly. There is a link between this devotion and the pro-life movement. Fr. Seraphim Michalenko, MIC, who was a principal translator of St. Faustina's diary, and the postulator of her cause of canonization, writes the following: "On at least three occasions, from 8:00-11:00 in the evening, she felt like her insides were being torn apart. She suffered so much that she thought she was going to die. The doctors couldn't figure out what was ailing her, and no medication was able to alleviate her sufferings. Later, she was given to understand that she was undergoing those pains for mothers who were aborting their children (Diary, 1276).

"On another occasion, she had a vision of an angel coming with thunderbolts to destroy one of the most beautiful cities of her country. And she felt powerless to do anything about it (Diary, 474). What antidote did the Lord give her? The Chaplet of Divine Mercy. [She explained] that the city was to be chastised for its sins, primarily the sin of abortion." ("Wombs of Mercy," Marian Helpers Bulletin, Summer 1995, p.13).
